ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL HEADMASTER NARCISSE LETTER 2009

Christmas Day HAS to fall on December 25th, Independence Day HAS to fall on July 4th, and the greatest of the traditional high school football rivalries HAVE to be renewed every year on Thanksgiving Day, starting at 10:00AM. So, if you are sitting in the stands reading this message on the morning of November 26th, you are in the right place at the right time for the right event. You are about to witness another episode in one of the oldest and most vigorously contested high school football rivalries in America. It goes back more than a hundred years-long before statisticians were recording blocked punts and third down conversions. It was a game for spectators, players, and coaches back then-for glory and bragging rights. Almost everything at Latin and at English has changed over the years in some ways, but not The Game.

A season's success is riding on the outcome of today's contest. If a team enters the game undefeated but loses the Thanksgiving Game, the season loses its luster. If a team enters winless but manages to prevail for this one shining hour, the season is a success. "We beat Latin my senior year. I'll never forget that!" Or maybe, "Murphy blocked an English punt, Flynn recovered it in the end zone and we won 7 to 6."

This is the day where The Tradition- The Rivalry-and The Memories continue. Enjoy the oldest public high school game on one of the oldest college football fields in the Nation.

Enjoy the Boston English and Latin Game and Happy Thanksgiving!

Sito Narcisse, Ed.D.

HEAD COACH KEITH PARKER

BOSTON ENGLISH – 1980-2009

Someone once said, old coaches never die they just fade away.”

I leave the great tradition of English-Latin playing for the 123rd consecutive time with a permanent impression of how grateful I am to have had the opportunity to be a small part of this historical rivalry.

To both outstanding institutions, I leave with respect for Latin and withh eternal hope for the Blue and Blue! I am very thankful for the opportunity to coach against Paul Costello during the 80's and 90's and in most reent years Coach John McDonough.

English fans – please come this Thanksgiving morning with the highest hopes and that the Blue and Blue will never die. Good luck to the future of English High Football.

Respectfully,

Coach Keith Parker

THE ENGLISH YEARS

BIOGRAPHY

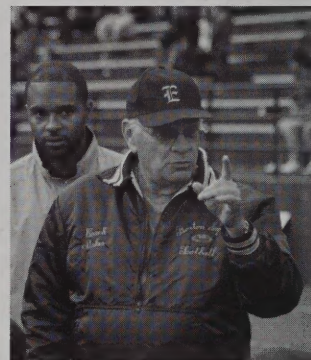

Coach Keith Parker grew up in Reading, Massachusetts. I can remember as a 10-year-old in the 1950's, watching the English-Latin game on Channel 7 broadcast from Harvard Stadium! I thought at the time what a great way to celebrate Thanksgiving! Little did I know of my future of being able to be a part of this great tradition

I have coached at “The English High School” since 1977. I became the Head Coach in 1980. Although, during my years at EHS we have only managed two wins over our purple opponents in 1981 and 1997, I know that six to eight other years the Blue and Blue came down to the wire with Latin! I hold my head high in knowing in my 30 years as head coach, my teams every year were the best they could be! Over my career English High Football has given their fans 5 City Championships, 2 Super Bowl titles. I have been the recipient of 2 Coach of the Year awards from the Boston Globe; I have been chosen to coach in the annual Shriners' Football Classic on 2 occasions. On two occasions I have been chosen the New England Patriots Coach of the Week in 1997 and again in 2009. My most important memories will always be about the players I coached and the message I tried to get across! “I taught my players to be respectful, to learn commitment and to show loyalty at all times! Most of my players got the message! Some didn't!

I will always cherish my years at Old English!

Sincerely,

Coach Keith Parker

LATIN FIGHT SONG

On the Field of Many Colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on,
cheer like volley thunder
Echoes to the sky
See the Latin team advancing
Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear Old Latin evermore.

LYNNE MOONEY TETA
Head Master

Warmest Thanksgiving wishes to the Boston Latin and English High School families!

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time of year when we gather together with family and friends to express gratitude for the many opportunities life has afforded us. Of course, Thanksgiving would not be Thanksgiving without the traditional turkey, cranberry sauce and the Latin / English football game!

We extend a special welcome to English High School Head Master Sito Narcisse as we celebrate the 123rd meeting of our schools in this historic tradition. Today's contest brings out the best in both schools, and we will enjoy a game played with great effort and school spirit.

As Boston Latin School commemorates its 375th anniversary this year, we take special pride in traditions such as today's game - an event which connects us to our historic past, while showcasing the achievements of our current students.

Thank you to the faculty, students, coaches, families and alumni who support our Boston Latin School programs on a daily basis. We congratulate the football team, the football band, the step squad and the cheerleaders on a great season!

Go Wolfpack!

Lynne Mooney Teta
